PRITHVIRAJ House

A body of determined spirits, fired by an unquenchable faith in their mission can accomplish seemingly impossible tasks. This has been the tag line for the brave hearts of Prithvi Raj House, who have put their heart and soul into the efforts to excel in all genres of activities held in the academic year 2016-17.

The ball was set rolling, with post summer holiday activities like Book Reading, Elocution and Holiday Project Assessment. Having had a good vacation, the boys were 'Charged up' to get down to work and came out with flying colours. Boys of class VI made a clean sweep in Hindi Book Reading, with first three positions being bagged by Karan Raj Sirohi, Shresth and Akshal of Prithviraj House respectively. Replicating the sterling performance of their seniors, class V boys also 'Read their way to Success', with Khwab Bansal, Manasvin and Vinayak (shared) and Parikshit having secured the first three positions respectively, in Hindi Book Reading Competition. In the same category, Shaurya Pratap of class IV did well to secure second position. The success story for class VI in English Book Reading was no different and Shresth, Karan and Akshal secured the first three positions.

Manasvin, and Abishay made a valiant effort and were able to almost echo the results in the English Book Reading, by securing the first and third positions respectively, with Shaurya Pratap of class IV, once again doing well, by securing the third position. Kudos to all the boys for having given a head start to PR House and setting the pace for all future events which were to unfold.

Class VI boys, as if making it a habit to succeed, unleashed their oratory prowess in both, Hindi and English Elocution competitions. Arnab, Karan and Akshal Dhal once again prevailed upon their competitors and bagged the first three positions in Hindi category and almost replicated their performance in the English category as well, with Arnab and Karan securing first and third places. Abishay of class V improved upon his previous performance and came first in the English Elocution.

It was not only fun and frolic during holidays for the boys, as they did not lose sight of their raison d'etre - keeping in touch with their academic syllabus and holiday project work. This was exemplified in the holiday project competitions, where the boys made a mark for themselves. Projects made by Udaybir and Parikshit of class IV & V respectively, in Geography were adjudged first, while those made by Aarav & Suryavardhan of class VI were jointly adjudged third. Aarav also secured second position in the History project. In the languages category, Neelay & Manasvin of class IV & V respectively, secured Second position in the English project, while Karan was adjudged second in the Hindi project. Arnab, the powerful speaker that he is, invoked a feeling of patriotism in the hearts of all through his poetic rendition in Hindi during the Independence Day Celebrations. Vishwavijay's speech in Hindi on Basant Panchami Programme was appreciated by all. Aarav Sood too was at his eloquent best and enthralled the audience with his Hindi speech Fine Art is that form of human expression, in which the hand, head and the heart go together. Our boys did well in all such forms of expression, whether it be Painting, Music or the artistic Flower Arrangement Competition. Suryavardhan stood first in the Painting competition held at Bikaner Pavillion, while Ahaan Pal and Utkarsh Mishra came first in the Inter House English and Hindi Vocal Solo respectively. Not too far behind, Adamyia Rawat came second in the Sitar Recital Solo. Overall, the PR House vocalists bagged the English Group Song competition. Displaying their superlative aesthetic sense, Arnav and Akshal won the Cut Flower Arrangement Competition held at Bikaner Pavillion. Talking about flower arrangements and flowers, we take great pride in being placed second among all Boarding Houses in the Flower Show Competition. To take a break from all the hard work put in, the boys were taken on a tour to Bikaner, Jaisalmer and Jodhpur during Mid Term. The visit was very interesting, where the boys learnt about the rich cultural heritage of Rajasthan and its glorious past.

As the Academic year comes to an end, we sign off with some great memories of success and happiness, with a resolve to continue the good work and leave an indelible mark on the sands of time. Reflection on the successes of academic year 2016-17 would be incomplete without making a special mention of the 'Behind the scene' herculean effort of PR House Staff and supporting staff in shaping up the boys and preparing them on a daily basis to give their best in every sphere of activity. Without their efforts, the resounding success of PR House would not have been possible.
