

HOUSE REPORTS

Housemaster
Mr Rakesh Alfred

House Captain
Rahul Bajaj

This year has been an exceptionally rewarding year to the boys and staff of Colvin House in all its entirety where everyone got an equal chance to grow, learn and excel in their own capacities and acumen, where each one made the most of what came about and made a relentless effort to bring about what was not easily there.

The house was creditably placed All - Round 'Second' in the overall standings of the school among the senior houses this year which is a matter of pride for the boys and staff at Colvin House. We aim to strive further and consolidate our position in all fields of excellence. Colvin House excelled at academics commendably, at sports and exceptionally at co-curricular activities that laid the foundation of a steady progress and plans to design and execute in the year ahead. There were some exceptionally talented boys who set standards and trends for others to emulate, like Adhyayan Choudhary, a truly deserving young man who turned around the odds and went through a transformation beyond words to clinch consecutive victories in long distance running in and out of the school piling up laurels for the house and the school to bask in. He won the Cross Country in laudable time and a gold medal at the IPSC besides setting the track on fire at numerous other competitions. He earned the prestigious College Colours for Athletics and Cross Country. This prodigious boy has blazed the trail for others to follow who look up to him for motivation. The house appointments, Rahul Bajaj, the House Captain and Somesh Gupta, the House Prefect did a wonderful job in their capacities justifying the trust laid in them. They enthused the house mates with a fervent spirit to compete with the right principles and to yearn to achieve with fair dreams and then to work to make them unfold with a dogged certainty with which they worked themselves. Sanyam Agarwal led the College Cricket Team with able leadership as the Captain and also a diverse portfolio of the College Social Service Captain that he did justice to by inspiring boys to come forward and lend a helping hand. Nischhal Sharma was well deservedly chosen to be the College Football Captain, a role that he lived well leading the College Football Team through the State and IPSC tournaments with success. Quite encouragingly the house witnessed a remarkable surge in the academic scores of the boys who maintained and even bettered their grades. The house saw a horde of academic achievers like Rahul Bajaj, Laksh Saraf, Shreyan Goyal, Somesh Gupta and Aniruddh Alfred who kept their focus and set the pulse among the juniors to achieve glory through academics. The house won the academics cup too in the middles. We managed to set up a house library in the Prep Hall with the effort and interest of the senior boys to instill a habit of reading among the boys. The senior boys took lead and helped in the organize Colvin Centenary Quiz this year with teams from all the houses and four houses from the Mayo College Girls' School, too. It was a grand success with a large parents and teachers. The Director and Mrs. Kulkarni were the guests of honour. It was organised efficiently, all by the boys in quite a professional way. The house debaters kept up the tempo and continued to participate and earn laurel to the house participating in various events here and outside with aplomb. Many of the boys this year also participated in the MUN with new enriching experience to gain and pass on to other aspirants.

COLVIN House

Class XII with Devang, Aniruddh and Rahul organised a large scale Prize Photography Contest in the house with entries in various curious categories from boys of all houses. It was attended by the Director and others. Jai Bhargava and Nirvaan Jain displayed exceptional talent and were chosen on the College Football Team early on and represented the school at various tournaments and of the IPSC level regularly. Nirvaan Jain was chosen to represent the school at the Eton College in the UK as an exchange student where he proved to be a good ambassador of the school. Aryan Yashpal earned the Outstanding Delegate award at the MUN in MCGS and a 'Mention' at the Cathedral Model United Nations Conference. He was also an intern at the parliamentary chamber of Mr. Arun Jaitley, the Union Finance Minister. He runs an online magazine called Policy Eye, also. Rakshit Jalan earned the prestigious Warrior Scholarship for the year 2015. He was selected to represent the school at Thailand. He also earned quite deservedly the Mayo College Scholarship for academics. Gurmat Brar along with Rakshit won the prestigious Scindia School Platinum Quiz.
